

Property

Moving home checklist

Utilities

You will have to arrange for gas, electricity and telephone to be billed and if appropriate disconnected at your old address or, at the very least, for the relevant companies to be informed of the change. Meter readings will often be required and a week or more notice may be needed in the case of reconnections.

- Gas
Reading:
- Electricity
Reading:
- Water company
Reading:
- District Council (for Council Tax purposes)
- Telephone
- TV/Satellite

Removals

Prices vary a lot and we suggest you get several estimates:

- Removals estimates
- Name: Quote:
- Name: Quote:
- Name: Quote:
- Name: Quote:
- Removals booked
- Contact:
- Time:
- Cost:

People to tell about your move

- Relatives and friends
- Your doctor
- Your dentist
- Your employer
- The hospital - if you are receiving treatment
- Your children's school/nursery
- Your bank
- Your building society - in respect of savings accounts
- Any credit/rental agencies - TV, car etc
- National TV Licence Records Office - Bristol BS98 1TL (or take the Licence to any Post Office, for amendment)
- Car tax and driving licence
DVLA, Swansea SA99 1BS
- The Government - if you are receiving benefits, child benefit or state pension
- The Post Office – for mail redirect, but there is a charge
- Your newsagent
- Your milkman
- Your cleaner/window cleaner/other tradesmen
- Your insurance companies - life, house, contents, car etc.

Key contact

Michael Rabbett
Partner

01733 888807
michael.rabbett@buckles-law.co.uk