How we can help

Buckles Solicitors LLP has a strong family law department with in-depth experience of dealing with the breakdown of family relationships, whether in marriage, co-habitation or civil partnership and whether or not children are involved.

If you need to consult a family lawyer, then you are almost certainly going through a difficult period in your life. We tailor solutions to suit the needs of each client, offering a bespoke service based upon each individual circumstance. We understand the related practical issues, such as the problems of separation, where to live, arrangements for children, together with money and property matters.

We work with you to find practical and cost-effective solutions. Our lawyers are all members of Resolution, whose code of practice promotes an approach which is sensitive, constructive, cost-effective and most-likely to result in an agreement. Many of us are trained in Collaborative Law, a process designed to resolve a relationship breakdown without resorting to Court intervention.

With lawyers trained in dealing with divorce involving high value assets, we are expertly positioned to advise you on how to ensure that financial resources are not wasted on protracted legal arguments. Our team is also adept at tracking hidden assets to ensure a more accurate assessment is made of the financial status of each individual case. We are experienced in cases where there is a foreign element and can advise you on how pensions could be shared in divorce.

Cohabitation

It is becoming more prevalent in society for couples to set up home together without being married. Complications can arise if simple precautions are not taken at an early stage. We can offer advice dealing with financial matters and practicalities to ensure protection of assets in an unfortunate event of separation.

Children

Issues involving the welfare of your children are often the most emotionally challenging to deal with. Our approach is always to ensure that decisions are made with the child's best interests at heart. Our family law team is experienced in dealing with all matters relating to children, including:

- ▶ Where the child will live (residence)
- ▶ Time spent with the child (contact)
- ▶ Adoption
- ▶ Mediation and negotiation
- ▶ Financial issues relating to children
- ▶ Issues involving non-married parents
- ▶ Civil partnership and children matters

Our approachable lawyers provide straightforward and clear advice tailored to your needs. For a confidential discussion, please contact a member of our family and matrimonial team.
